LINE-UP BEGINS AT 10:00

The parade will start in the Stonebrook/Greystone Estates Subdivision and travel down Dortch Ln., Stonebrook Blvd., and Nolensville Rd. through Nolensville to Nolensville First United Methodist Church. The parade will disband at the church. Already in progress will be activities for your entire family's enjoyment at the Lawn Festival.

Again this year, we will have a float contest. The winner will get their name engraved on the perpetual trophy. Be creative, and let's make this a parade to remember.

All entry forms must be received by June 5, 2008 to reserve a place in the parade lineup. Please give your full address and phone number so we can reach you next year also.

Please note that all parade participants must be responsible for their own liability in case of an accident. Parents are responsible for minor children.
