

Defensive Driving Safety School

(The National Safety Council's Defensive Driving Course)

How to become a Defensive Driver and Protect yourself from Aggressive Drivers

Presented by Impact Seminars, Inc.
A Sub-Agency of the Tennessee Regional Safety Council

Frequently asked questions and answers:

Will taking the class keep the ticket off of my record?

Yes. ISI is approved by the state of Tennessee, certified by TRSC, and the National Safety Council to offer the class in compliance with the state requirements for a traffic safety class

What is the cost of the class? The $50 fee may be paid by check, cash, VISA/MC or MO: payable to ISI-Defensive Driving

How long is the class? Four hours with frequent breaks

How will the court know I attended the class? You will be given a certificate at the end of class to return to Kathy Little and you will also receive a certificate from the National Safety Council

When is the class offered? We offer the classes every Saturday morning at 8:30am and on Monday and Tuesday evenings at 5:30pm – if on/near holidays: call 373-3588 for confirmation

Why not just pay the ticket? It will be on your record, your insurance premium could increase, and most importantly, you would miss a course that could save your life, time, and money

Will taking this course reduce the likelihood of getting another ticket? Studies by the NSC indicate you are less likely to get another ticket or be involved in a crash

Can I call to talk to a real person about the course? Yes, call: (615) 373-3588

Can I find more information on the Internet?

Visit: www.impactseminars.com to take a tour of the classroom, read participants' comments, get directions, or take a test to discover what you know about driving in Williamson County

How do I register? Just show up 15 minutes before class starts

"Surprised! Not the typical school, had fun, and learned a lot in the class. Highly recommend!"
